

Spirit's Gratitude Prayer
By Archangel Gabriel

It is this day that I proclaim grace in my life. It is with grace that I am blessed and offer praise by being grateful in all things in my life.

I am grateful for the wisdom I possess, for the love in my heart, and for the peace in my soul that I declare.

Thank you God, Source of all blessings.

I am grateful for the guidance and intuition that I have within me and can call upon at any time; for the everlasting abundance that is in every moment of my life; I am aware that my life is for greatness, always.

Thank you God, Source of all blessings.

I am grateful for the wellness I shine, for the hand of kindness from a stranger, and for the love of family and friends.

As I look through my eyes, I see beauty only. I am immersed in beauty, and in all beauty I know love.

Thank you God, Source of all blessings.

I am grateful for the strength I gain every day of my life. It is with this strength that my difficulties and hardships leave me. I now experience every opportunity with delight.

Thank you God, Source of all blessings.

I am grateful to serve God, for He is with me. I have the courage to begin and end all things in my life because of God. For all of this and His presence, I am grateful.

Thank you God, Source of all blessings.
